Diego is a great preceptor, he explains difficult problems clearly, cuts to the chase, and throws in some jokes here and there too - which is especially important for a Friday lunchtime precept.

Precepts were an essential part of this course. The sessions cleared up many questions and clarified the course material. Diego is an excellent preceptor, extremely helpful and approachable. Also very funny.

Diego does not always know the answer to a question posed, but if he doesn't he will find it and then later e-mail out the whole section. Overall positive experience.

Diego's the best. Never met a nicer guy and he was genuinely helpful with any material that I struggled with.

Diego made a huge effort to be engaging during precept, which I think was appreciated by his students. He was good with explaining the material

Precept gave a good explanation of some of the material in class. Would have been nice to explore more rather than just re-teaching material taught in class. Diego was great, always willing to answer questions.

He was just fine. Funny, kept us paying attention. Precepts surprisingly helpful to programming assignments and exams.
